2005 Season-In-Review

The 2005 season opened with back to back wins against Gadsden State and a ten run shutout by Brett Bowen against Okaloosa-Walton. The season ended with a hard fought 7-5 loss in the State Championship game with Hanceville.

As always, a lot was expected of the 2005 Bucs. With a strong core of returning players like Daw, Carter, Sprowl, Bowen and Pearson, as well as a lot of key freshman (especially pitchers) the Bucs were ready for an exciting season.

The early part of the season the Bucs were inconsistent at times, but showed signs of what would be an exciting run to the State Championship game. Early season wins against Okaloosa-Walton, Hanceville and Meridian and the maturing pitching staff led us all to believe the Bucs were ready for conference play.

The conference started out with the Bucs winning six of their first nine games. After two emotional and hard fought games (Jeff St. and Central Alabama Community College) in which Shelton lost in the last inning with two outs, most teams would have "closed shop." The determined Bucs showed the poise and pride that took them to the Championship game with Daw playing flawless at short stop, Carter's run-producing at bats and Bradford and Bowen bolstering the pitching staff, the Bucs erased a four game difference (for a playoff spot) with nine games to play. A three game sweep of Jeff St. meant Shelton controlled its own destiny for the final playoff spot.

The final day of the regular season the Bucs boarded the bus for Southern Union tied with Jeff St. for the final playoff spot. Both teams won game one with Bradford throwing a masterpiece. Excitement reached a peak during this emotional day as word reached Southern Union that Jeff St. had lost and regardless of the outcome of our game, there was more baseball to be played.

Shelton State and Jeff St. played a one-game playoff for the final tournament spot. Down 1-0 in the fifth inning, the Bucs finally got things rolling and coasted to a 10 run win behind the strong pitching of Bowen.

The Bucs would head to Dothan with confidence and great fan support. It would be a week that we will always remember (parents commuting and phone calls with play by play for those that couldn't be there).

Game one – (Shoals) Bradford was outstanding pitching a complete game – Coleman's double in the 8th would seal the victory for the Bucs.

Game two – (Jeff Davis) Playing Southern Division Champ Jeff Davis, Shelton erupted for six runs in the first and went on to ten run Jeff Davis.

Game Three – (Gadsden) The Bucs bats stayed hot and Bowen was in control on the mound. The Bucs won handily.

Game Four – (Hanceville) The game went back and forth early until Hanceville eventually 10 runned Shelton.

Game Five – (LBW) One again Bradford was virtually unhittable throwing 7 innings – down 2-1 in the 7th, Wall had a two out two run single to give Shelton the lead – Hollis came out to close a tight, well played game.

Championship – Hanceville took command of the game during the middle innings leading 7-0. The "never-say-die" Bucs made a late run cutting the lead to 7-5 with the winning run at the plate before Daw grounded out to end the game.

The tournament featured many outstanding performances by most of the Bucs. Daw, Bradford, and Coleman made the all tournament team but there were many others who helped make this tournament special.
